

I have come into the world as light, to prevent anyone who believes in me from staying in the dark anymore. Jn. 12:46

1. What are you keeping in the dark?
2. What do you need to “crack open” so that God can shine on it His flame & love?

“We believe, even if only for a moment, Satan’s lie that God is not to be trusted. He will not provide good things.”
(Manual for Women)

3. In what ways are you not trusting God?

Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think according to the power at work within us, to Him be the glory!”

Ephesians 3:20-21

4. How does the phrase “Do not be afraid” make you feel? Has your response to the phrase/call been the same or different throughout your life?
5. How or where do you hear God speak to you? Does He sound like someone you know?
6. Has there ever been a call from God you struggled to answer or understand?
7. What has God done for you in this life that’s more abundant than you asked?
8. Have you made an obedient yes that yielded abundance for someone else?
9. If part of abundance comes from recognizing our blessings, how can we count the blessings when we have considered them part of our suffering?
10. How does God call you to share your story with others?
