

You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free. John 8:32

1. What area(s) of your life have you found yourself denying your truth, or hiding your feelings?
2. What is the truth that has “set you free”?

³ Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's^[a] eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? ⁴ Or how can you say to your neighbor,^[b] “Let me take the speck out of your eye”, while the log is in your own eye? ⁵ You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's^[c] eye.

Matthew 7:3-5

3. Think for a moment about ways in which you are critical of others. How would you hold up under that same criticism?
4. How have you been blinded to your own faults? What helped you to recognize this?

The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.⁹ He fulfils the desire of all who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them. Ps. 145: 8-9

5. Describe a time when you felt God “saved” you.
6. For what “desires of the heart” has God answered your cry?

My child, be sincere of heart and steadfast, and do not be impetuous in time of adversity. Cling to him and do not leave him that you may prosper in your last days. Accept whatever happens to you. Sirach (Ben Sira) 2:1-4

7. What time in your life were you the Prodigal Daughter wandering through the desert looking for answers to your situation?
8. Do you think the current culture encourages people to wander in the desert and how do we come back to Him and His embrace?
9. What do you feel interferes with your acceptance of God’s plan in your life?
10. How do you know what God’s plan is?
11. How do you show/attain acceptance of God’s plan in your lives?
