

Small Group Reflection Questions a.m.:

1. You are dreaming...walking on the calm water toward Christ who is smiling with arms outstretched. You begin to sink, and Jesus reaches out and grasps your hand and says: "What is it that you are so fearful of? And you answer:_____
2. As a child, who did you trust the most? Why this person? What comes to your mind when you hear that Christ wants you to trust in him totally?
3. Faith is an individual journey; where do you find yourself today on that journey and where do you want/strive to be?
4. On a scale from one to ten, (1 = fearful and 10 = fearless), where are you on that scale in your life from day to day? Over the years, how have you moved along that "fearless scale"?
